

SECRET

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Monday - 10 April 1967

Page 2

25X1 6. [ ] Picked up from Mr. Woodruff, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, the signed letter to the Director of the Bureau of the Budget approving supplemental appropriations for the Agency.

25X1 7. [ ] Delivered to Mr. William Darden, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, a news ticker item concerned with Senator Stephen Young's authorship of an article in PLAYBOY which attacks the Agency.

Also gave Mr. Darden a brief picture of the amendment to the USIA Act which Senator Fulbright is proposing.

25X1 8. [ ] Delivered to Mr. Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, a copy of the newspaper article reporting President Johnson's comments in Tennessee which Mr. Michaels had previously requested.

25X1 9. [ ] Met with Mrs. Peggy Rapping, in the office of Senator Howard Baker, and confirmed with her the arrangements for Senator Baker's visit to the Agency tomorrow morning. Mrs. Rapping noted that the Senator is very much looking forward to meeting with the Director.

25X1 10. [ ] Attempted to meet with Crawford Cook, in the office of Senator Ernest F. Hollings, to detail the arrangements for the Senator's visit to the Agency on Friday. Mr. Cook was not available until tomorrow.

25X1 11. [ ] At his request, met with George Norris, House Armed Services Committee staff. In brief, Mr. Norris was interested in the status of the letter response to Mr. Blandford, of the Committee staff, concerning the comparative strengths of the Soviet and U.S. nuclear forces together with the questions for use by Mr. Norris in Committee in development of this same question. I advised Mr. Norris that both are under active consideration and I will keep him up to date on any changes in status.

25X1 12. [ ] Dana Swift, in the office of Senator Charles Percy, called and requested any unclassified information we could provide on Che Gueverra. [ ] is pulling some material together for the Senator's office. 25X1

25X1 13. [ ] Handcarried to Homer Krout, in the office of Representative Joel Broyhill, our response to the Congressman's letter concerning an Agency personnel problem, explaining the way in which we handled the situation. Mr. Krout agreed with our approach and thanked us for providing a written response.

SECRET